

ANTI-BULLYING COURSE FOR CHILDREN

Learn how a bully thinks and acts, how to avoid danger, gain the confidence and ability to fight back, and much more in our Anti-Bullying course.

Bullying is an opportunistic act, as is most typical criminal behaviour. A criminal is on the lookout for potential victims who have dropped their guard and presented him with an opportunity.

A bully needs a target, he can't bully by himself, any more than you can play football or basketball without a ball. He also needs the opportunity to bully someone. That's why our main focus of in our Anti-Bullying Course for Children is focused on avoiding dangerous situations.

ZERO TOLERANCE

When we talk about zero tolerance, you as a parent must look at every single situation, address it, and attack it. There is no situation that is too small. Once you have identified it as a case of bullying, then you have to address it immediately. And we provide all the action steps and training to do this.

WHY SECUSOL?

Our Anti-bullying courses are a fully immersed learning experience for both child and parents, our unique approach covers role playing activities, coupled with online and paper based course work. At the end of the course your daughter or son will receive a certificate that they can be proud of.

TYPES OF BULLYING

VERBAL BULLYING | This type of bullying includes name-calling, rude words that are used to hurt someone. A victim of this bullying can be affected emotionally, their self-image and confidence.

SOCIAL BULLYING | Cyber bullying is a great example of social bullying and it is very common today. This bullying behavior, takes place on the Internet and it can be experienced by children, teenagers, adults and even businesses.

PHYSICAL BULLYING | This includes kicking, spitting, punching, and pushing that can cause embarrassment as well as bruising and broken bones.

Bullying is no different to being stalked, or being abused as a child, therefore, we should treat bullying as serious and with zero tolerance.
